- Any student who has an obligation (negative lunch balance, library fine, lab/shop fee) must report to the media center during all Make-Up Exam blocks until their obligation is resolved. Students skipping will receive a Saturday School upon return from break.
- Any student who has missing work, or is failing a class (as of 12/13) must remain in the school building during all Make-Up Exam blocks. Students on this list must report to the teacher(s) needing their work and will be released by the teacher(s) when all work is completed and graded. Students skipping will receive a Saturday School upon return from break. Students on the “Stay List” can work themselves off of the list throughout the week by completing their work or taking care of their obligations.
- If school is delayed, Make-Up Exam time at the end of the day will be cancelled and all other exam times will be altered (1st Exam 10:05, Lunch 11:25, 2nd Exam 12:25, 3rd Exam 1:40). If school is cancelled on any of the exam days, check your email and/or listen for a one-call for a revised schedule. Students should bring ALL semester exam study materials home prior to the Day 1 schedule.
- All exams must be completed by the end of Day 3. If a student is absent for an exam, they must contact their teacher to schedule a make-up. If a student is unexcused, or fails to contact their teacher, he/she shall receive a “0” on the exam(s) missed.
- Buses will run at regularly scheduled times. There will be study areas in the media center for those needing to ride the bus.
- Once a student arrives at school, they must stay until all their exams are completed that day. Students may not leave and return between exams.
