

Read and Think

- Circle the sentence that tells the main idea.
 - Sleep for humans almost always means a bed or a mat.
 - Animals have many different ways of sleeping.
 - Most animals sleep at night.
- Put a T by the sentences that are true. Put an F by the sentences that are false.

_____ All animals sleep at night.

_____ Elephants sleep in groups for protection.

_____ Birds are the only animals that build nests.

_____ All animals sleep.

- Draw a line from the animal to the way it sleeps.

elephant	standing on one foot
otter	in nests in trees
bat	upside down
flamingo	floating on its back
squirrel	in groups

Word Attack

- What do nocturnal animals do?
 - sleep in groups
 - sleep at night
 - sleep during the day .

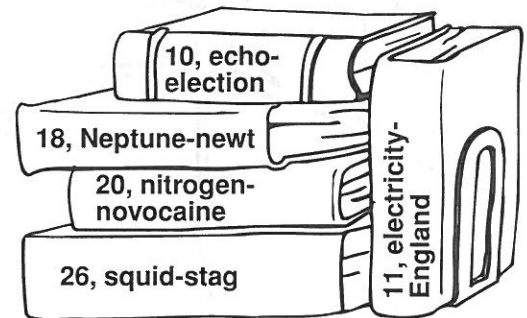

Language Skills

An 's is used at the end of a word to show that something belongs to a person or thing. (An ['] is added to the end of a plural word ending in s.) Read each sentence. Put an (') before or after the s in the underlined word to make the sentence correct.

- The elephants circle protects the young elephants.
- Birds feet lock to hold onto a branch.
- That baby sea otters bed is a real water bed.
- A bats bedtime is when my alarm clock rings to wake me up for school.

Study Hall

Topics in an encyclopedia are in alphabetical order. Write the number of the volume in which you would find each topic.

- nocturnal _____
- Einstein _____
- elephants _____
- squirrels _____

Try to Apply

- Describe your sleeping habits.
