

My Dog, Hollywood

I have a dog named Hollywood. Little did I know when I named my dog how fitting his name would be. Before his second birthday, my dog, Hollywood, made it to Hollywood!

Hollywood is a great dog, but he has a peculiar habit. Every day Hollywood barks at the mail truck. Many dogs bark at cars. But Hollywood only barks at the mail truck. One day, as the mail truck came down the street, Hollywood got out of the yard. He ran beside the mail truck and jumped in the open door while the truck was moving! Our mail carrier didn't even notice Hollywood. Then, at the end of the street, Hollywood jumped out and came back home. The next day, the same thing happened. This became a habit for Hollywood. Luckily our mail carrier likes dogs and enjoyed Hollywood's new trick. The newspaper put a picture of Hollywood on the front page and printed an article about Hollywood's peculiar habit.

A few days later, a dog trainer called. He said that he saw the article in the paper about Hollywood. He said he needed a dog like Hollywood for a new movie. Before we knew it, Hollywood was a Hollywood movie star.
